WHAT – DEFINING THE GOAL

What exactly are we trying to achieve?

Purpose: Clearly articulate the goal or outcome.

Strategies:

- Define what success will look like!
- Use SMART format (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound).
- Focus on the impact the vision will have on the team or organization.
- Keep the goal concise—one sentence or phrase.
 - The longer it takes you to explain, the less prepared you are to discuss.

Tip: Imagine explaining the goal to someone outside the team. Would they understand it?

21

HOW – OUTLINE THE APPROACH

How will we achieve this goal?

Purpose: Describe or provide visuals for the path forward.

Strategies:

- Outline key steps or milestones towards the final goal.
- Leverage your team's strengths and resources.
- Break the goal into manageable tasks to ensure focus, accountability, and momentum.

Tip: Consider what resources, tools, or processes might be needed to ensure success.

22

WHO – IDENTIFY, CLARIFY ROLES

Who is involved in the success of this goal?

Purpose: Clarify who needs to be part of the process and their roles.

Strategies:

- Identify the tasks needed to be completed and key stakeholders in the process: team players, leadership, external collaborators.
- Clarify the tasks/roles to avoid gaps and overlap.

Tip: Consider how to involve and inspire each group.

23

WHEN – SET MILESTONES AND DEADLINES

When will we reach our goal?

Purpose: Establish a realistic timeline with checkpoints.

Strategies:

- Create and communicate a project timeline.
- Set short-term wins – and celebrate them to build momentum.
- Include regular check-ins to reassess or adjust when needed.

Tip: Utilize collaborative tools to track deadlines and be ready to hold people accountable through effective feedback conversations.

24

WHY – CONNECT TO A PURPOSE

Why does this matter?

Purpose: Motivate the team by connecting the vision to a larger purpose and/or explaining the need for the change.

Strategies:

- Highlight how the goal aligns with organizational/professional values.
- Share the positive impact that will result from the goal.
- Explain the steps involved in the creation/identification of the goal.

Tip: Humans connect to stories and emotions – what inspires your team?

27

Goal Alignment

- Avoids gaps and overlaps
- Creates a unified purpose
- Builds accountability and transparency

28

SHARED VISION

Does everyone understand the broader organizational or project goal?

Everyone is mission-critical for a successful outcome.

29

SHARED VISION

Organization Goals:
High-level objectives and initiatives.

Team Goals:
How the department/team supports the organizational goal.

Individual:
How each person's work contributes to the team goal.

30

Aligning Goals

1. Define the big picture.
2. Break into team-specific objectives.
3. Map individual contributions to team goal.
4. Regularly communicate progress and updates.
5. Reassess and realign goals when necessary.

31

TOOLS AND TECHNOLOGY

Goal-Setting Frameworks:
SMART goals, S.W.O.T. analysis, KPIs, Grant-specific requirements, etc.

Collaboration Tools:
Asana, Trello, Microsoft Teams, Slack

Check-ins and Updates:
Weekly team huddles, cross-functional check-ins

32

ALIGNMENT CHALLENGES

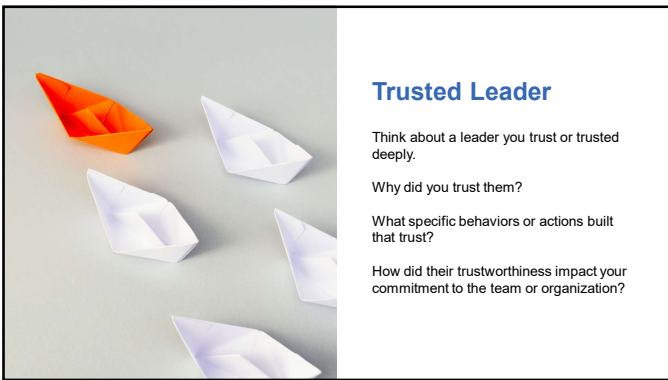

CHALLENGE	SOLUTION
Miscommunication between teams	Create a shared document or dashboard
Competing priorities	Use regular meetings to clarify and renegotiate priorities
Lack of ownership	Assign clear responsibilities and tasks
Missed deadlines	Conduct effective feedback conversations/create a team charter

33

34

35

36

TRUST IN LEADERSHIP

- Competence: Demonstrating the skills and knowledge to deliver results.
- Consistency: Acting in alignment with values and commitments – consistently.
- Empathy: Understanding and caring about the needs and perspectives of others.

37

Commitment is a byproduct of trust.

38

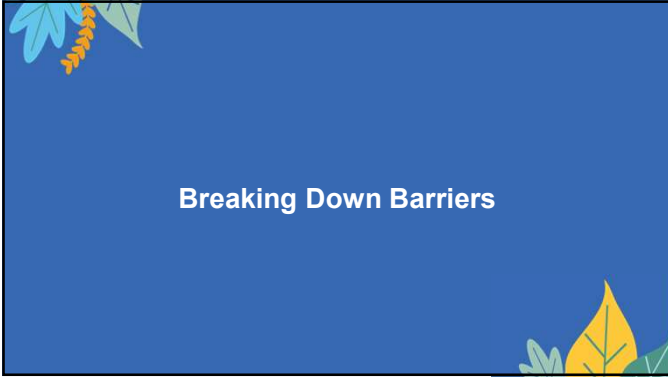

- How do you want to show up this year?
- What will you change?
- What will you grow/develop?
- What will you discontinue?

What happens if you do?
What happens if you don't?

TYPES OF BARRIERS

Structural Barriers: Silos, unclear roles, disorganized.

- Map out the current process to streamline or clarify roles.
- Use tools and technology to create shared dashboards (Project Management).
- Schedule regular cross-functional meetings with clear agendas.

Interpersonal Barriers: Miscommunication, team conflicts, etc.

- Develop/foster open communication through huddles or feedback loops.
- Facilitate effective feedback or performance management conversations.
- Provide skill-building opportunities in areas such as conflict resolution, communication styles, strengths-based teams, etc.

41

TYPES OF BARRIERS

Cultural Barriers: Differences in work styles, values, or expectations.

- Embrace diversity by celebrating different perspectives.
- Develop and communicate shared expectations.
- Establish shared norms and values through team-building activities.

Behavioral Barriers: Resistance to change, low engagement.

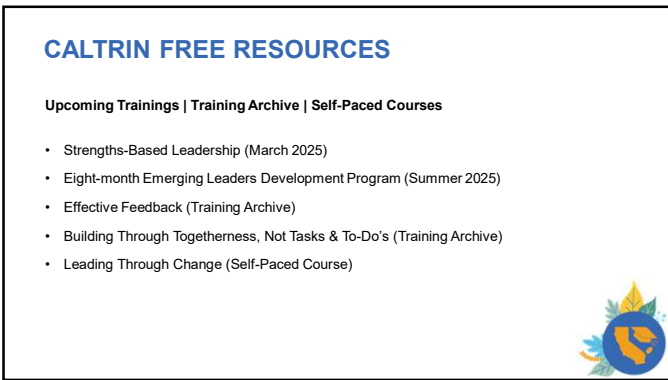

- Strengths-based coaching or feedback.
- Deliver effective feedback or performance management conversations.

Using the Direction, Alignment, Commitment (DAC) Assessment

How to Use the DAC Assessment

You can find a free online version of the DAC Assessment Tool on the Center for Creative Leadership \(CCL\) website.

When to Use the DAC Assessment Tool

- New Teams: When starting or forming a new team.
- New Members: When adding new members to an existing team.
- New Work: When changing direction, also helpful for the group, etc.
- Stalled Progress: When progress is not being made towards team goal.

How to Distribute DAC Assessment Tool to Team?

- Send a copy of the DAC Assessment Tool to the team and ask that results be shared via email.
- If you would like the results to be submitted anonymously, consider collecting a few different sets of identifiable identifiers: Check ID tags, business cards, etc.

How to Review the DAC Assessment Results?

You and your team have completed the DAC Assessment. Now what? Review the following recommended next steps below:

- Collect and compile the overall results from your team.
- Evaluate the overall scores on each of the three domains: Direction, Alignment, and Commitment.
 - Consider the following questions to help you identify next steps:
 - Is there a total score for one outcome that is noticeably lower than the total scores for the other outcomes?
 - Are there any scores for an outcome that are less than 10?
 - What patterns/insights are you finding with your team's results?
- Once you have identified one or more low scoring outcomes (less than 10), you can begin exploring the solutions or next steps. It is important here that you are coming together, focus on outcomes in this order: Direction, Alignment, then Commitment.
